Milam Stock Show
21st Renewal Sat.

100 ENTRIES PREDICTED IN FOUR DIVISIONS

J. D. Moore, county agent, predicted more than 100 entries in the 21st annual Milam County Junior Livestock Show to be held Saturday at the Cameron Compress building, Santa Fe and South Jefferson streets.

The show will get underway at 9 a.m. and the public is invited.

Entries will be from young livestock growers in Buckholts, Milano, Thorndale, Rockdale and Cameron.

John Batte of Cameron, veteran chairman of the show, said the young growers who are 4-H and FFA members will exhibit in four divisions: Beef, Dairy, Swine and Sheep.

Prizes and ribbons will be awarded to all entries and scoring will be by Danish system. The two best animals in each class are grand and reserve champions and other animals are graded on a point system according to their quality.

Last year 54 animals were shown in the Jr. Livestock Show and 34 were judged blue ribbon entries.

Awards will be furnished by contributors in the area. The donors will also be eligible to win a beef steer for taking an active interest in the youth of Milam County, officials noted.

Judges for the show will be from the animal science department at Texas A&M for the Beef, Swine and Sheep classes. Bob Gray, Dairyman from Holland, Texas, will judge the Dairy cattle.

Assisting Chairman Batte with arrangements for the show are Dana Monroe, secretary-treasurer, Jerry Schiller, finance chairman, and Byron Wise, records.

Heading the four divisions of the show are: H. L. McClaren, Beef; Billy Harris, Dairy Cattle; Henry Richter, Swine; and Ed Laywell, Sheep.

The Milam County Livestock Show has grown each year from a small beginning in 1946 when there were only 3 entries. Since that time more youngsters in the county have become interested and today exhibit some of the finest animals grown in the state. Many of the local exhibitors will go on to show in Taylor, San Antonio and Houston, Moore said.

Two Seek Chief's Post
City Seeks Applications

Two applications for police chief, both from out-of-town, have been received at City Hall following the firing of Police Chief Frank Chapman last week by a 3-2 City Council vote.

Applications are being accepted for patrolman, actually for two patrolmen, after patrolman Robert Dymke quit following Chapman's dismissal, according to Buddy Fuller, city secretery.

The January 4 meeting at City Hall saw Councilmen R. W. Wells, Lester Turner and Mayor pro tem Starrett Hickman vote to dismiss Chapman, and Councilmen Lawrence Zotz and J. C. Marek voting against dismissal.

Chief Chapman led a police department walkout of the five-man force in October over wages and hours. Zotz led efforts to reinstate the force which the Council voted to do. Mayor Bassel Wilson was out of town at the time of reinstatement.

The Mayor presided over the January 4 meeting at City Hall, but did not vote. He said the City is seeking two additional patrolmen, later saying officials would prefer a patrolman and combination patrolman-chief.

Mayor Wilson told the press last week that Chapman was offered an opportunity to resign and rejected it.

Following the 3-2 Council vote, Chapman's services were terminated with pay until January 15.

Fuller told The Herald Vernie Miller is day patrolman and Claude Bailey night patrolman while replacements are sought.

Three dispatchers work the radio in three eight-hour shifts. They now are: Mrs. Elsie Cannon, day dispatcher; and Dero Jenkins and Pat McCall, night and swing shift dispatchers.

There were reports of a meeting of some councilmen Tuesday night prior to the Wednesday meeting at City Hall.

The work schedule agreed on in October for city policemen is still in effect. It calls for four eight-hour days and two 12-your days each week for Cameron police.

Litzman To Head March Of Dimes As County Chairman

Henry Litzman has been named county-wide chairman of the 1967 March of Dimes.

In Rockdale John Ballard and Darrell Walker are co-chairmen for the drive. In Cameron Mrs. Loretta Brock and Mrs. Theodora Marek will be co-chairmen of the Mothers March. A. J. Whiteside will head a drive in the O. J. Thomas area.

Besides the Mothers March a Bucket Brigade will be held in Cameron and Rockdale. There will also be community socials and "42" parties to help raise funds as well as professional basketball games. Byron Wise and Porter Young are in charge of ball games.

School Board To Meet Thursday

The Cameron School Board will convene 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Ben Milam School to review a four-point agenda, according to Supt. D. R. Dodson.

Board members will consider:

--Dates of a trustee election in the first Saturday of April.

--A teacher resignation and replacement.

--Effect of wage and hours legislation on auxiliary personnel in CISD system.

--Discussion of special education classes in recently acquired property north of the Yoe Campus.

Four incumbent directors of Elm Creek Watershed, encompassing parts of four Cen-Tex counties, have been re-elected in light turnout.

Holdover directors are E. A. Perrin, 59 votes, and Jim Reddin, also 59; and Robert Hoelscher, 56 votes, and A. A. Stravinoha, also 56 votes.

L. N. Ezzell, of Buckholts drew 46 votes, and F. E. Rea, of Troy, drew 24 votes, according to Watershed officials.

Voting was held in Yarrelton School, Red Ranger Store and in Troy from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday.

Other members of the eight-director Elm Creek Watershed board include Albert Matula, of Cameron; A. C. Akridge, of Troy; Edwin Smith, of Rogers; and Laddis Slavik, of Marak.

Four hundred votes had been estimated as the potential vote, Perrin told The Herald last week.

Resident taxpayers of the Watershed were eligible to vote in the annual election.

Friend Jim Russell, editor of the Belton Journal, recently noted in his "Russelling Around" column:

"A psychologist from the University of Illinois says that newspapermen have the highest anxiety level of any American occupational group he has studied. They are even more anxious, he said, than navy frogmen, pilots in training and business executives. So-- just as we'd always thought-- the fear of drowning, flaming death in an air crash and bankruptcy is less than the fear of sounding like an idiot in print."

107-107-107

With all the dramatic impact of the television camera or the sonorous word of the great speaker, or the color pictorial in the slick magazine, the printed word is final. Thus the anxiety.

OVERHEARD -- Atty. Don Humble saying, in jest, after he, Banker Hilliard Thomas and Atty. Robert Ellett had incised economics at the Tuesday "Library Friends" symposium, to Oxsheer Smith:

"I hope you learned something tonight that you can use in your work."

107-107-107

EXCELSIOR -- Thus far, the Friends program has brought an unique scope to Cameron's library program. Economics, poetry, choral music, philosophy and all those things asociated with a University, have had survey introductions during the current series.

The Library itself has added about 600 volumes since early fall, 1966, and more are being purchased under a book program this year, finally upward to 2,000 additional volumes.

Culture would seem to be a drag, if you heeded the influence of the Beatles and the British Mod styles. But even the Beatles are about to disband and America's teens and subteens will have to find something else to get emotional about.

And they'll come back to culture, even, in this era, if they happen to stumble over it.

Perhaps the non-books and the anti-hero of cinema and paperback will go the way of the Beatles, who, at least, leave behind a "beat" of some originality.

1,600 Register At Milam Polls

About 1600 Milam County voters have registered in Cameron, Rockdale and Thorndale under the new voter registration law, Valter White, county tax assessor and collector reported.

White said 1400 had registered at the court house in Cameron and an additional 200 had obtained registration receipts in Rockdale and Thorndale. He predicted that at least 4,000 would register in Milam County. He added that a comparable non-presidential election year would have drawn about 3,000 poll tax payers.

Voter registration is being conducted at Gaither Motor Co. in Rockdale, at the City Hall in Thorndale and the tax collectors office, in the basement of the court house, Cameron.

White said there was no charge for registering, but a registration receipt was necessary in order to vote in any election this year. Deadline for registering is midnight, January 31.

White also pointed out that the former late sign-up allowed 21-year old voters no longer applied. Those who will be 21 this year must register before midnight January 31 according to the new voting law.

Blanks are also available at the Cameron, Rockdale and Thorndale registration headquarters that may be taken to anyone who is ill or otherwise unable to come to the registration centers. White said.

Blood Program In 14th Year

By Mrs. Robert Ellett
Red Cross DRC Chairman

The Central Texas Red Cross Blood Program is serving Cameron for the fourteenth year. What does this program mean to you as a resident of Milam County? During the fiscal year 1965-1966 Milam County residents received 933 units of blood.

Richards Hospital - 297 units
Newton Memorial Hospital - 109 units
St. Edward Hospital - 153 units
Out of Region Hospitals - 374 units

This means that either you, your family, or your neighbor received blood during the year.

Participation in the Blood Program asures you that blood will be available to you when it is needed. Local hospitals are supplied with blood at all times. Through the cooperation of the Texas Highway Patrol and local Police Departments additional blood may be obtained from the Blood Bank in Waco if it is needed.

Cost of blood is another important factor. Blood purchased commercially now costs between $25 and $50 per unit. Through the Red Cross Blood Program, blood is given to residents of participating communities free. The minimal charge of $5 is made to defray costs of processing. Receipt of blood through the Red Cross Blood Program is not limited to local hospitals. You can receive blood at any hospital free with only a $6.30 processing and shipping charge, if you request a certificate from your local chairman certifying that you are a resident of a local participating community.

These valuable services provided everyone in our community are dependent upon you for your support. This year Cameron has met its quota for funds for the Red Cross through our United Fund. The Blood Program depends upon you for yet another kind of support - the generous donations of blood required to keep the program in operation. During 1965-1966 Milam County was 173 units of blood under its quota.

This year the hours that the bloodmobile will be in Cameron have been extended until 7 p.m. for the convenience of those unable to make their donation during business hours. The time required to make an actual donation is only 10 minutes and you should allow an additional 30-45 minutes to furnish information needed by staff workers and volunteers.

Cameron needs the Central Texas Red Cross Blood Program and the Blood Program needs blood donations generously given by Cameron residents. Further information can be obtained from your local chairman, Sister Aloysius, St. Edward Hospital.

Fires Plague Cameron Area

Fires continued to plague Milam County residents with grass fires on the increase and continued dry weather forecast.

Cameron Volunteer Firemen answered calls at two home fires early this week. The garage at the Clyde Hensley home in Maysfield burned Monday night, destroying a 1965 Ford and a 1959 Ford pickup. Several saddles and miscellaneous stored items were also burned.

Firetruck driver Warren McCall said cause of the fire had not been determined. He added that the family had been alerted by a dog barking at about 11 p.m. The fire was extinguished by 1 a.m.

A clothes dryer at the H. H. Stedman home, 905 E. 12th, caught fire at about 7:30 p.m. Tuesday causing smoke damage in the house. Faulty wiring was thought to be the cause of the fire.

Three runs were made to extinguish grass fires Thursday afternoon (January 5). A small fire on So. Rusk was reported at 1:30 p.m. and at the same time a large grass fire was reported at the Rodney Fontaine farm in Jones Prairie. Another large grass fire was extinguished at the James McQuary farm in Sharp. It was reported at 5:15 p.m.

Grass fires were also reported at 12th and Nolan at 1 a.m. Friday; on No. Columbus at 10:10 a.m. Saturday; and at the Lehman Wilson farm northeast of Cameron at 11 a.m. Saturday where several acres of pasture burned. Another small grass fire was extinguished on West 4th at 4:35 p.m. Sunday.

WRECK ENDS NO ACCIDENT DAYS FOR '67

The first major traffic accident in Milam County for 1967 occurred Tuesday morning south of Milano in a road construction area. Three Houston residents were injured in the one car wreck.

Highway Patrolman Leroy Broadus said the accident Tuesday broke a chain of several weeks of major accident-free days that had continued through the Christmas holidays.

Broadus said 188 traffic accidents were recorded in Milam County during 1966, resulting in death to 6 persons. He said that 96 were injured in traffic accidents during 1966 and property damage amounted to $136,960.

Broadus said this was a slight decrease from the previous year when Milam County recorded 195 traffic crashes which resulted in 7 deaths, 106 injured and property damage amounting to $119,974.

He said major cause of the accidents here had been lack of responsibility on the part of drivers to learn and obey traffic regulations, and defensive driving.

THREE INJURED

Broadus said Tuesday's one car accident occured about 10 a.m. on US-36 south of Milano. He said the car, driven by Mrs. Julian Gray of Houston, apparently went out of control in the highway construction area, left the road and hit a Caterpillar road tractor parked on the siding. Broadus said the impact pushed the large tractor about 2 feet to the side.

All 7 occupants of the car, including the driver's husband and 5 children, received cuts and bruises. Most seriously injured were Mrs. Gray and two children. They were taken to St. Edward Hospital, Cameron, by Phillips and Luckey ambulance and later transferred to Scott and White in Temple. They were reported in satisfactory condition late Wednesday.

Milam Banks Report Gains

Milam County banks followed trends in other agriculture area Central Texas banks showing gains in deposits in the bank call at the close of business December 31. Reports were completed this week for the year-end bank call.

Higher agriculture yields and good grain prices were credited generally for the $1,926,275.98 increases in deposits at Milam County banks. The bank call reports were regarded as a healthy atmosphere for growth.

Citizens National Bank in Cameron showed the largest gain over the same date in 1965 with $13,917,076.15, an increase of $1,286,106.03. Deposits at First National Bank, Cameron totaled $6,887,480.66 which is a gain of $355,180.21 over December 31, 1965.

Rockdale State Bank deposits were $7,233,868.95, up $188,567.80. Buckholts State Bank reported total deposits of $1,202,885.77, up $42,812.45 and Thorndale State Bank showed an increase of $53,609.44 with a total deposit of $1,375,318.95.

Rosebud banks also showed gains in the annual bank call. Planters National Bank of Rosebud reported total deposits of $1,973,594.45 which is $177,253.81 higher than the same period in 1965. First National Bank of Rosebud had total deposits of $1,585,559.81, an increase of $156,662.95 over December 31, 1965.

First State Bank of Rogers reported $847,030.83 in total deposits, a decrease of $112,329.69 compared to December 31, 1965.

Coring At 12,835
Smackover Try Deep

Milam County's deep wildcat, the No. 2 Adoue Estate, was at 12,835 feet on Monday and drilling crews were preparing to core the Smackover try. Earlier, the wildcat was reported drilling at 12,810 feet on Friday of last week.

If the No. 2 Adoue Estate is encountering the same formations that Shell's No. 1 Adoue, drilled in 1964, did, it is believed to be in the Cotton Valley. According to oil scout rumor at the time, the No. 1 Adoue, located some 3,000 feet northwest of the present wildcat, did considerable coring in the Cotton Valley between 12,000 and 13,000 feet and reportedly found shows there. However, the No. 1 Adoue was drilled deeper in search of the Smackover, and bottomed in salt at 14,457 feet when it was plugged and abandoned in May, 1964.

Several miles west of Shell's No. 2 Adoue Estate deep wildcat the J. M. Huber Corporation No. 2 H. H. Coffield Unit, in Henry Miller survey, was waiting on completion rig to be moved in late last week. This wildcat was drilled to 2,850 feet and has 4½ inch pipe set to that depth.

The No. 2 Coffield is located 6½ miles south of Milano and near the Burleson County line. It is some 500 feet southwest of the company's No. 1 Coffield, 3,024 foot dry hole drilled a couple of months ago.

County Agent's Notes . . .

Prune, Spray In January-February

By J. D. Moore

January and February are the months to prune, spray, and fertilize pecan, fruit trees, and other shrubbery around the home.

Fruit and nut trees as well as shade trees, should have all the dead limbs removed. The purpose of pruning a tree is to remove all dead or damaged limbs, shape and balance the tree, and control excessive growth. If trees are not cut back in several years, at least one third of the length of the limbs should be cut off. This type of pruning will shape a tree, add strength to the limbs, thicken up the growth and add to the beauty and balance of the landscape.

Pecan trees should have all dried pecan hulls removed. This can be done by using a long cane. The purpose of removing the dried hulls is to remove a possible source of pecan scab re-infestation next spring.

A dormant oil spray should be applied in January or February and before leaf growth begins. The purpose of an oil spray is to control scab and scale insects. These insects have a scale like cover too thick to be penetrated by most insecticides, therefore an oil spray should be used. The insects are most commonly found on the underside of the smaller limbs and appear as a dark gray scaley deposit. For large amounts, use 3½ gallons of 97 percent miscible oil to 100 gallons of water. For smaller amounts, use ¾ of a pint to 3 gallons of water or 4 tablespoons of oil to one gallon of water.

Dormant shade trees may be sprayed with the oil spray at the same recommended rates. Dormant oil sprays can be purchased at your local drug store, feed and farm supply stores. For further information, the Texas Guide for controlling Insects and Disease, L-245, is available at the county agent's office.

Trees may be fertilized during January or February by punching holes in the ground with a crowbar, or any pointed object that can be pushed into the soil 6 to 8 inches deep. The purpose of this placement method is to get the fertilizer down into the root zone. Use two pounds of a balanced fertilizer like 10-20-10 for each one inch diameter of the tree trunk.

A systematic method to follow is start the first hole about two feet out from the base of the tree. Continue punching holes in the soil around the trees about two feet apart. Continue out from the tree with succeeding holes, starting the second circular row about 18 inches out from the first holes. Alternate the holes for the fertilizer for each succeeding circular row of holes in the soil for better distribution. Be sure and distribute the fertilizer to include all of the limb spread of the tree.

Most of our soils are deficient in available iron. This is noted by the yellowing of the leaves of trees and shrubs. All of our pecan trees in Milam County need an application of Zinc Sulphate.

We have no specific recommendations for the amount to use. However, one teaspoon of Zinc Sulphate placed in each of the holes prepared for the fertilizer will be sufficient. You may place the Zinc in the holes with the fertilizer. One half pound of Zinc Sulphate is enough to use around a medium sized tree.

Start now if you want healthy, productive trees next summer and fall.

Most Area Farmers Owe Self-EmployTax

A majority of farmers and ranchers in this area must pay a federal self-employment tax for 1966, A. P. Andrews, administrative officer of Internal Revenue Service, Temple, Texas revealed today.

He said the rate of self-employment tax for the taxable year of 1966 is 6.15 percent, including medicare, and is in addition to any income tax payable.

Under the federal Social Security law, Social Security taxes are paid by employees and their employers, and the self-employment tax must be paid by persons who are self-employed. These taxes are used to pay old-age, survivors, medicare and disability benefits under the federal Social Security program.

A self-employed person is one who operates his own business, and therefore a farmer or rancher who operates a farm or ranch, either on his own land or rented from someone else, is considered self-employed. This is true even though he may employ someone else to do the work and does not live on the farm or ranch himself.

ERSKINE McDERMOTT, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. McDermott, gives a thorough inspection to one of the new DEEP TREAD tractor tires at Horstmann's Tire Store.

The DEEP TREAD tire is Firestone Tire and Rubber Company's new concept in tractor tires. This type of tire was designed to answer the unique demands of the late model high horsepower tractor.

Horstmann's Tire Store stocks over 200 different types of tires. This inventory of tires includes the DEEP TREAD in sizes 16:9-34, 18.4-34 and 15.5-38.

You are invited to come by and inspect the DEEP TREAD rear tractor tires. We think you will agree that this tire will put to work all the horsepower that was originally built into your tractor.

Horstmann's Tire Store

Your passport to the world

Your telephone can carry your voice to almost any corner of the globe at the speed of light. Pretty amazing when you stop to think about it. Fact is, you can reach 97 percent of the telephones in the world by Long Distance. And closer to home, you can call more people and more places in Texas than ever before. That's just one way your telephone service has grown in value over the years.

Another way is in transmission quality. Today's phone users can talk as though they were four feet apart. Back in the early 1930's, it was 35 feet. And the low cost of telephone service makes it a real bargain. Today you can make a three-minute, station-to-station call to any point in the continental United States (except Alaska) for $1 or less after 8 p.m. or all day Sunday. Better service to more places at lower cost. We think that's a winning combination.

Program To Aid Speech, Hearing Handicapped

A planning committee for a three-county program to aid persons with speech and hearing handicaps decided Friday to study existing speech and hearing facilities to determine emphasis of a proposed public information and education project.

Plans now include McLennan, Bell and Hill counties, but the program can be extended to other Central Texas counties, said Mrs. C. M. Garnes, director of the Baylor University Speech and Hearing Clinic.

Ten committee members attended the initial planning session and luncheon at Baylor.

The project was assigned to the Baylor clinic by the National Association of Hearing and Speech Agencies to which the university belongs. Main purpose of the program is "total community planning to meet the needs of the speech and hearing impaired," according to Mrs. Garnes.

Initial study of the project began in November when a Baylor agency team attended a NAHSA training workshop in Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Next meeting of the planning committee will be in February, Mrs. Garnes said. Members then will report on available speech and hearing services and will suggest means of meeting needs for expanded services, she said.

TEXAS FINE ARTS SURVEY TO LIST LOCAL CULTURAL RESOURCES

Mrs. W. C. Freeman, member of the Cameron Delphian Club has been designated as the local coordinator for a cultural resources inventory to be taken in Cameron as a part of an official statewide survey now being conducted by the Texas Fine Arts Commission, according to Mrs. H. B. Bratton, president of the Capitol District of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, chairman of the newly created Fine Arts Commission, said, "We are indeed grateful to Mrs. Freeman for undertaking the completion of our survey in Cameron. This is a unique project in Texas; nothing of its kind has ever been attempted in the State of Texas before."

The purpose of the survey, Shepperd explained, is to determine both the quantity and quality of cultural activity both by organizations and individuals now going on in the towns and communities in our state. "We plan not only to catalogue the various organizations active in the fine arts field in Texas, but to identify individual artists, authors and craftsmen, and the location and identification of local public and private works of art and collections," Shepperd said.

When tabulated, the results of the statewide survey will be used by the Commission to develop an over-all plan to utilize the cultural resources of the State and to meet the needs of the greatest number of persons possible. The survey resulat will also permit the Commission to publish a "Who's Who" in the arts in Texas, a calendar of cultural activities and events, and a list of available talent, performing arts groups and exhibits, and to develop pilot projects that would assist in the development of the arts in Texas.

8 Trail Rides Heading For SA

A record 5,000 riders are expected for the 8 trail rides that will make their annual trek to San Antonio for the Feb. 10-19 Livestock Show & Rodeo in Joe Freeman Coliseum.

According to the general trail ride chairman, C. E. "Ed" Johnson, Altair, 8 trail bosses at the annual meeting estimate the 5,000 riders will travel a total of 1100 miles, and pass through 85 towns. A new feature this year is a pony express race approved by the trail bosses. This will be a 50 mile time race to prove the stamina of today's riders and the speed of their horses. In commenting on the pony express race, Johnson said, "Many of our riders like to run their horses, but we must restrict them on a trail ride to a normal, slow walk. This race will give two riders from each ride an opportunity to run their horses and show what their cow ponies can do."

The Central Texas Trail Riders Association will make their 4th annual ride from Rockdale, starting on Saturday, Feb. 4 and Trail Boss A. N. Graham said everyone is invited to join the ride.

Trail ride schedule is:

Saturday, February 4, 2 p.m. - Parade through downtown Rockdale and leave for Lincoln Community Center and Western Dance free for all members.

Sunday, February 5, 7 a.m. - Leave for Bastrop; 12 noon - Arrive at Page for lunch stop; 5 p.m. Arrive Bastrop for night camp; free barbeque and Western Dance for members.

Monday, February 6, 7 a.m. - Leave Bastrop for Neiderwall; 12 noon - Cedar Creek for lunch stop; 5 p.m. - Arrive Neiderwall for night camp.

Tuesday, February 7, 7 a.m. - Leave Neiderwall for Hunter; 12 noon - Arrive San Marcos for lunch stop; 5 p.m. - Arrive at Hunter for night camp.

Wednesday, February 8, 7 a.m. - Leave Hunter for Selma; 12 noon - Arrive New Braunfels for lunch stop; 5 p.m. - Arrive Selma for night camp.

Thursday, February 9, 7 a.m. - Leave Selma; 12 noon - Arrive at Three Points Truck Stop on U.S. 90; 1 p.m. - Leave for Coliseum; 3 p.m. - Arrive San Antonio night camp and welcoming ceremonies at Joe Freeman Coliseum; 8 p.m. Pearl Corral party dinner and dance free for adult members only.

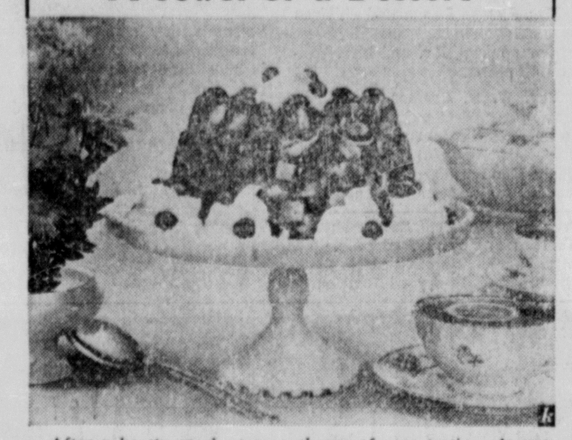
A Jewel of a Dessert



After a hearty meal or as a change-of-pace teatime dessert, this shimmering garnet mold clearly promises refreshing goodness. Made easily with black cherry flavor gelatin, whole berry cranberry sauce, crushed pineapple, and chopped walnuts, it can be prepared early in the day and be ready for serving in the afternoon or evening.

FRUITED GARNET MOLD

1 package (3 oz.) Jell-O Black Cherry Gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup canned whole berry cranberry sauce
¾ cup cold water
1 cup drained canned crushed pineapple
¼ cup chopped walnuts

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add cranberry sauce and blend. Add cold water. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in drained pineapple and nuts. Spoon into a 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with prepared whipped topping and whole cranberries, if desired. Makes about 4 cups or 8 servings.

Growers Approve Meat Program

By J. D. Moore

Dudley Campbell of San Antonio, Director of the Texas office of the National Livestock & Meat Board, presented a program to livestock producers in Milam County to point out the functions of the Meat Board. At this meeting a vote was taken to see if Milam County producers wanted to support the voluntary Meat Board's program. The vote was 100 percent in favor of the program.

The Meat Board's program is supported by voluntary contributions of livestock growers and feeders in cooperation with participating livestock auction firms. The auction firms assemble funds on a per head basis at the time the livestock are sold at the auction barn - 3 cents per head on cattle and 1 cent on hogs and sheep. Participating meat packers match these investments on the same per head basis.

Mr. Wally Eldred, Manager of the Cameron Livestock Auction said that the auction barns would assemble the funds starting the first sale in January, 1967. He also stated that the auction firm would also contribute to the Meat Board's program.

Mr. Campbell remarked that "investments" is really a more descriptive word than contributions. He said, "A contribution generally is regarded as something given to a charitable organization whereas an investment is made for the betterment of one's own business operation." An investment is made to gain dividends and the cattlemen's investment in the Board's program pays dividends in these ways:

"It builds consumer demand for meat; it strengthens the market for livestock; it protects the favorable public image of his product, beef; and it informs consumers of the importance of his industry. These are the direct benefits the Texas cattlemen receive from the Meat Board's programs of research, education, information and promotion." Mr. Campbell concluded.

"Our targets are the nation's consumers and the bulk of these are located in the larger metropolitan areas in Texas and across the country," states John B. Armstrong, Kingsville, Texas rancher who is chairman of the Beef Industry Council of the Meat Board. He noted that fifty percent of all consumers live in the ten biggest metropolitan areas of the United States. "Our aim is to accelerate demand for beef in every section of the country through the most modern methods of merchandising, promotion and communications since strong demand for beef is a key factor in strengthening the market for beef cattle," he said.

Here's the way it is summarized by Dolph Briscoe, Jr., Uvalde, Past President of Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers who represent that organization on the Meat Board directorate: "The Board's meat research which has identified meat's unquestioned value in the human diet; the Board's food page services - many in color - which daily spotlight meat menus and ideas in newspapers from coast to coast; its literature which helps teachers, students, homemakers, physicians and others, the movies, demonstrations, cooking schools, television and radio shows conducted by the Board -- these and many other services and facilities have a direct and favorable influence on the market for beef and pork products. It therefore is directly related to each individual livestock producer in Texas and the United States."

Grain Acreages Up

Fertilizer Shortage Seen

College Station

Increased wheat and feed grain acreages indicate a potential shortage of fertilizer in the spring of 1967, notes C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist at Texas A&M University.

Such a situation could develop as national corn acreage is expected to be up 20 percent, and 45 percent of the total fertilizer used in the United States goes to this crop, Welch says.

The lack of transportation and distribution facilities to deliver the needed fertilizer could make it difficult for farmers to obtain fertilizer at the time needed for planting. This could mean inadequate fertilization and less than potential production, Welch points out.

Application of fertilizer in the late fall or early winter will enable the individual farmer to avoid the difficulty of obtaining fertilizer for 1967. Phosphorus, potassium, and nitrogen should be applied in the late fall or early winter if these conditions are met:

1. Soil temperature below 55 degrees F.
2. Have soils high in clay.
3. Put fertilizer in the soil.

The major concern over fall fertilization involves potential nitrogen losses. Should the nitrogen remain in the ammonium form during the winter period, the chances of loss are at a minimum.

Nitrification of ammonium is low under 55 degrees F., therefore, farmers should consider fall or winter fertilization. In many instances where fertilizer has been early, a small amount of nitrogen and phosphorus applied with or near the seed at planting, will give good results and maintain the advantages of fertilization at or near planting, Welch explains.

State Of The Union. . . . .

President Johnson's State of the Union was grim concerning Vietnam and firm and conciliatory concerning domestic affairs.

The speech left out the rhetoric. It was businesslike from the man who appeared more rested than since his pre-election tour of Southeast Asia.

His request for a Vietnam surtax and increase in social security will surely draw close scrutiny from the resurgent Republican side of the aisle.

He seemed willing to view the Viet struggle more candidly, drawing no illusion over it being a drawn-out war.

The address challenged this nation to find the will to stay in Vietnam, perhaps to reduce the minority dissidence that gives Hanoi pause to seek an end even though one might be sought.

Above all, the message left no question about the complex, outgoing world position the United States has assumed, one that seeks balance with a Russia starting an anti-missile defense system, greater trade relations behind the Iron Curtain, aid for Africa, South America and Southeast Asia outside Vietnam, and an international community of nations now led by our North American colossus.

What Others Say . . .

Winter Walking

On a blue-sky, crisp day before the snow blanket is too thick, it is good for a man to walk the fields and swales, upland pastures and woodlands. Walking, you may recall, is that form of movement in which one foot is repeatedly placed ahead of the other.

Especially after a light fall of snow, the rewards are many. Fences and silos, walls and posts, wear clean, sparkling berets; tree limbs with lines of white paint a picture in the sunlight. Down by the swale, tracks of field mice make lacework patterns. Along the ice-frosted brook, one may see the sharp tracks of a mink.

Climb a boulder-studded hillside on a pleasant January day and the feeling of space and freedom gives a lift to the heart. In the distant river valley, the stripped elms seem like feathery gray vases; against the far heavens, blue-green mountains loom with white birch stippling.

Countrymen know there are secrets in winter walking. One should never hurry; a sandwich in the pocket means one can disregard time. There is beauty in the heads of grasses above the snow; there is peace among the evergreens where pines and spruces play haunting music when a gentle breeze passes by.

We are not a walking nation, as are the English, Germans and Swiss. We hop into a horseless carriage to go a block. But there are those who know the joy of walking in all seasons of the year. January is the heart of winter, and there are days when a gold sun shines in a blue sky and the temperature is moderate. On such a day, it is good for man to escape from the daily treadmill and walk the fields and woodlands.

60th Legislative Session Starts

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

There has been a lot of swearing going on at the Capitol.

Seems like almost everyone has been sworn into an office of one type or another. We haven't made an official count but the number will approach the 200 mark.

First it was the judges. Then the top elective officials. Then the 31 State Senators and 150 members of the House.

There's no doubt about it, there's a lot of swearing going on in the Texas capital. And there's more to come.

With what's upcoming in the legislative halls, there's likely to be a lot of unofficial swearing, too -- a bit stronger in nature. This is bound to happen when so many people get together . . . .and especially when arguments, pro and con, get underway for this and that bill.

It's expected that some 2,500 measures will hit the hopper before the lawmaking session ends.

SHOW IS ON THE ROAD

The 60th session of the Legislature now is underway. How long it will last is anybody's guess.

Three officials in a position to be among the state's best guessers are predicting it will not continue beyond the 140-day deadline for a regular session. This despite a mountain of problems to be resolved.

"We can finish on time," commented Speaker of the House Ben Barnes, as the representatives began to assemble. And he emphasized "I want no special sessions."

Gov. John Connally has voiced a similar view. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is even more strongly convinced that special sessions are out of the question.

"It is not only possible to complete our work in 140 days -- there ought to be no other thought than finishing by then -- and probably before," commented Smith.

Lieutenant Governor Smith suggested that legislators could speed up their work if they abandoned the usual practice of four-day weeks and stayed in sessions Fridays and Saturdays once the bills start coming out of committees. Asked if he felt that the lawmakers would do that, the lieutenant governor acknowledged that chances of them doing so are slim.

Smith feels the 60th Legislature faces no more problems than previous ones.

COURTS SPEAK

Texas Supreme Court agreed with the lower courts that West Texas State University could indefinitely suspend a student for violating conditions of disciplinary probation for traffic offenses.

High Court also, in effect, upheld tax values of the City of Port Lavaca which had been attacked by property owners who claimed land assessments were discriminatory since bank deposits were left off tax rolls.

Austin District Judge Herman Jones heard arguments in the AFL-CIO suit to invalidate the constitutional amendment which would require annual voter rrgistration Labor leaders claim that the ballot stated only that it would repeal the poll tax as a voting requirement -- thus failing to describe its full purpose. Secretary of State John L. Hill has been enjoined from canvassing the November 8 vote on the amendment pending outcome of the suit. AFL-CIO seeks summary judgment. Union officials want permanent registration.

AG RULES

Only licensed physicians or optometrists, not ophthalmic dispensers of optic goods, can legally fit contact lenses, former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held.

In a eparate opinion, Carr concluded that University of Texas regents can require participants in UT postgraduate medical programs to be holders of doctor of medicine degrees, excluding doctors of osteopathy.

SHEPPERD PARK TRUSTEE

John Ben Shepperd has been appointed sole trustee and administrator of the LBJ Park Fund.

Fund consists of money donated to buy land across from the LBJ Ranch in Gillespie County.

Selection of the former attorney general for this post was made by the State Parks and Wildlife Commission following criticism of the Commission for its handling of the fund.

Simultaneously, the commission announced it is fencing 25 acres of the 247-acre park to contain deer, buffalo, turkey, longhorn steers and other native animals.

Park has been enlarged to include historic and scenic, as well as recreational objectives. Area will be open soon, commissioners indicated.

Commission Chairman Will Odom of Austin said Shepperd was named to make the project function more smoothly and not because of earlier criticism. Shepperd said he will reveal the names of the donors to the fund, as requested by Governor Connally, when all land acquisition is complete.

TOURISM EXHIBIT

A $12,000 exhibit has been prepared to demonstrate the scenic and recreational attractions of Texas. It will be displayed at major travel shows across the nation.

Exhibit included a miniature waterfall, slides and a diorama depicting each of five aréas of the state -- East Texas, the Hill Country, the Rio Grande Valley, the Gulf Coast and the Trans-Pecos-Far West Texas region.

Theme of the exhibit is "Texas -- For a World of Difference."

FESTIVALS ON PARADE

Eight top tourist atiractions will be represented in the inaugural parade for Governor Connally and Lieutenant Governor Smith here on January 17.

They are the Fiesta San Antonio; Austin's Aqua Festival; Buccaneer Days (Corpus Christi); Charro Days (Brownsville); Washington's Birthday Celebration (Laredo); Sun Carnival (El Paso); Houston Fat Stock Show and Rodeo; and "Texas", the outdoor drama from the Palo Duro Canyon Amphitheatre near Amarillo.

Festival floats will be supplemented by military displays and marching units.

COLLEGE GRANTS

Twenty-eight Texas colleges and universities have been recommended for $812,094 in teaching grants from the federal government, says the Higher Education Coordinating Board.

Public senior colleges scheduled to receive $375,499 are Angelo College, Stephen F. Austin State, Sul Ross State, East Texas University, Sam Houston State, Southwest Texas State, Midwestern University, Texas College of Arts and Industries, North Texas State University, Texas Western College and University of Houston.

Nine public junior colleges to receive $177,280 are San Antonio College, Cisco, Wharton County, Lee, Laredo, Del Mar, Cooke County, Southwest Texas and Panola County.

Private schools receiving $259,315 will be South Texas College, University of St. Thomas, Abilene Christian College, Jarvis Christian College, Texas Christian University, Bishop College, University of Dallas, and St. Edward's University.

Schools must match federal money on at least a dollar-for-dollar basis.

Federal approval is expected within the next few months.

AIRPORTS INCREASE

Municipal airports in Texas increased from 219 to 226 the past year, says the State Aeronautics Commission.

Texas still leads the nation in the number of air strips even though the total decreased from 895 to 870.

INSURANCE RATES CHANGED

A 7.3 per cent across-the-board increase in title insurance rates, the first jump since 1962, has been approved by the State Board of Insurance.

Increase, which became effective on January 1, is based on a formula that board actuaries worked out in 1962.

At the same time the Board approved a general statewide reduction of four percent in crop-hail insurance rates.

Reduction was approved when the Board okayed a filing by the Crop-Hail Actuarial Association of Chicago proposing rules, rates and forms for the 1967 growing season.

SLANT-WELL SUITS SETTLED

Slant-hole oil well lawsuits involving millions in possible penalties were settled by the state against 30 defendants in the Longview-Tyler-Kilgore area for $391,925.

Settlements were requested by defendants after Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin hinted he may not go along with the earlier formulas used for disposing of such cases.

Twenty-six other slant-well cases still are pending.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

I knew it was going to happen sooner or later, and according to a newspaper I read last night a guided missile got out of hand in Florida and took off without authority, but fortunately headed off several hundred miles into the ocean and disappeared harmlessly.

The incident bears out what I've been arguing: the world has got all these guided missiles, each one aimed at some important city in a potential enemy's country, but how do we know they're accurate? How do we know they're going to land where they're aimed?

How do I know that somebody in Moscow, aiming at New York, may not sight down the barrel wrong and land the missile in the middle of this Johnson Grass farm, just before my crop's gathered? What's going to happen when some emotional Frenchman, told to fire, excitedly pulls the trigger toward Peking and the thing lands in the office of The Herald? Probably on press day.

Aside from the gross economic waste of using a multi-million-dollar missile on you or me, you can see what international confusion would result from guided missiles going off in all directions and few of them going where they were aimed. It might be years before we found out who won.

Of course the answer is an international peace conference, but I don't see much chance of that, therefore I am proposing that the world leaders immediately call an International Gunnery Conference.

Bring together all the men from all nations who are in charge of firing missiles and give them an intensive, thorough-going training course in marksmanship. Make it an absolutely closed union shop, with nobody allowed to graduate and return to fire for any country until his accuracy is absolutely unquestioned. I don't know where they would do their practice firing, but China is an awfully big country.

It would be terrible enough to have a missile war run by experts, but turn it over to amateurs, with missiles going off in all directions like children's sky-rockets, and the situation is too awful to contemplate.

I hope you will get hold of our Congressman right away and get this gunnery school started.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

When Kathy prays

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When Kathy prays I can almost hear angels wings flutter. Her simple conversations with God are so full of trust and confidence, I feel as though I am standing at the doorstep of heaven.

After prayers, I tuck her into bed, turn out the light and go downstairs. And I find myself continuing the conversation she has started. My prayer is always the same . . . that as she grows, and her needs and wishes change, my little girl will continue to develop her understanding and love of God.

How grateful I am for my church. It has been a constant source of inspiration for my own religious growth. I know it will be ready to help me answer Kathy's questions. It is wonderful to know that I do not have to tackle the religious education of my daughter alone.

Attend your church. Let it help you as you guide your child's religious thinking.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

John, alone with Edward in an elevator, says to him:

"You are a crook."

Assuming that Edward is not a crook, could he collect damages for defamation of character? No, because nobody else heard what John said.

Generally speaking, to "defame" someone is to injure his reputation. If no one hears the accusation except the accused person himself, then his reputation has not suffered at all. While a private, face-to-face insult might occasionally amount to a criminal offense, it is not grounds for a defamation suit unless there is a third party in the picture.

This applies not only to oral defamation (slander) but also to written defamation (libel). For example:

A man wrote a bristling letter to the widow next door, accusing her of stealing his lawn mower. He happened to be wrong, and she sued him for defamation of character. But the court denied her claim, because the man had not made the charge known to anyone else but her.

Suppose that such a letter, although mailed to one particular individual, is also read by a third party. If the writer should have foreseen that eventuality, then he may indeed be held responsible for making his accusation public. Thus:

A wholesale grocery salesman, irked at one of his customers, wrote him a scurrilous letter. But the customer's secretary opened the letter and read it before passing it along to her boss.

Was the salesman liable for defamation. The court said yes, because he was familiar with the secretary's habit of checking the mail. The court said he should have foreseen that his accusations would become public just the way they did.

But there is no liability if the third party, even though he sees or hears the accusation, cannot understand it.

In one case, a virtuous woman was accused of immorality—in front of her very young children. A court found no defamation, since the children had no idea what the words meant.

"The essence of the injury," said the court, "is the effect upon the minds of the hearers." And here there was no effect at all.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

WASHINGTON D.C. The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State.

I am concerned about our war in Vietnam. It is being run on the basis of our SEATO treaties, and ultimately is under the control of the United Nations. Since the inception of the UN, the office of Under Secretary General for Political and Security Council Affairs has been held by an open Communist from a communist country. I feel there is no chance for us to win the Vietnam war under these circumstances. I urge that we get out of the UN so that we might have a chance to win in Vietnam and bring our boys home.

H. I. O., M. D.
Los Gatos, Cal.

Dear Dr. O.:

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) is not considered a "regional agency" within the meaning of Articles 52 and 54 of the United Nations Charter, but rather an alliance in accordance with the right of collective self-defense recognized by Article 51 of the Charter. The UN Charter imposes no obligation on members to make classified military information available to the Security Council or to any UN agency, nor, of course, do we do so. Reports by the United States to the Security Council in the spirit of Article 51, and Article 4 of the SEATO Treaty do not contain specific military information and are of only a general nature.

Those who have expressed concern in this matter have usually mentioned Mr. Vladimir Suslov, a Soviet national, who until recently was UN Under Secretary for Political and Security Council Affairs. There are a total of 18 UN Under Secretaries. Two of these positions are held by United States nationals and eight by nationals of countries formally allied to the United States. Only two Under Secretaries are nationals of communist countries. Neither Mr. Suslov nor his successor, also a Soviet national, received any information on United States military operations in Vietnam, or for that matter in any area.

We recently had some documents legalized by the Italian Consul and were amazed that the charge was $9.80 per document. This seems ridiculous since the County Clerk will certify documents for fifty cents. Is it the practice of our government to charge equally high fees for similar services abroad? If the latter is the case, I respectfully suggest that this is not the way to adjust the balance of payments.

G. W. S.
Rochester, N. Y.

Dear Mr. S.:

Although the fee you cite is considerably higher than that charged by an American Consul for a similar service ($2.50), it is generally in line with fees charged by other foreign consuls, most of which are in the $8 or $10 range. One foreign government charges $17.50.

Italian consular fees are set by the Italian Parliament and are applied uniformly throughout the world.

℞: A FREE SURVEY!

This is the season of the year when thousands of homeowners are suffering from "heating system headache."

It's brought on by outdated, troublesome heating equipment. Two common symptoms are hot blasts and cold drafts . . . often accompanied by strange noises. In the advanced stages, there's the painful expense of adjustments and repairs.

A sure-cure remedy is available . . . a modern, flameless electric heating system.

TP&L neither sells nor installs equipment, but we can make a survey of your home and recommend a system to fit your needs. No charge or obligation, of course. If you wish, we'll put you in touch with a Certified Electric Heating Dealer. He'll tell you about the modest installation cost and . . . best news of all . . . a Guaranteed Operating Cost Plan.

The coupon at the top can start you on the road to recovery from "heating system headache."

IRS Questions

Q - When will I get my tax forms in the mail?

A - Distribution of the 1966 tax forms should be completed early in January.

Forms will also be available at IRS offices as well as many banks and post offices.

Q - Is a Social Security pension taxable?

A - No it is not.

Q - I worked last summer to earn money for college but made less than $600. How can I get back what was withheld from my pay for income tax?

A - File an income tax return to obtain a refund of any income tax which was withheld from your wages.

The card Form 1040A may be the best, as well as the easiest, for you to use. Don't forget to put your Social Security number on the return and attach your W-2 Form. The W-2 shows how much was withheld.

Q - Has there been any change in the income tax rates for 1966?

A - No. An individual's income for 1966 is taxed at the same rates in effect the preceding year.

Q - When can I expect to get my W-2 from my employer?

A - Employers are required to issue Form W-2 by the end of January but many do so earlier.

are given in the 1040 instruction booklet?

as a convenience for those tax-

for state gas tax deductions that

A - These figures are provided are given in the 1040 instruction booklet.

Q - Can anyone use the figures payers who deduct state gasoline tax when they itemize deductions. If you are entitled to claim this deduction, then you may use the table instead of doing the calculations yourself.

Q - If my wife and I file separately instead of jointly, can one itemize while the other uses the standard deduction?

A - No. Married couples filing separate returns must handle their expenses the same way. If one itemizes the other must too.

Married couples filing separately must also take the same type of standard deduction. If one takes the minimum standard deduction, they both must take it. Since Texas is a community property state, there is ordinarily no benefit to be derived from filing separately as all community income must be equaliy divided.

Q - Are you going to offer tax assistance over the phone again this year?

A - Yes. Check the local phone directory for the number to call.

Q - Does the law now require me to file my return with an IRS service center?

A - A new law authorizes the Secretary of Treasury to make such a request for certain 1966 returns. Taxpayers living in the Austin District who OWE tax should file their returns with the District Director of Internal Revenue, 300 East 8th Street, Austin, Texas 78701. Taxpayers who have a REFUND due should mail their tax returns in the special envelope provided, or address them to: Internal Revenue Service Center, Southwest Region, Austin, Texas 78740.

Q - How does the minimum standard deduction work?

A - The deduction amounts to $200 plus $100 for each exemption taken on the return including those for age and blindness.

A married couple with two children as dependents would be entitled to a $600 deduction when this method is used. If the income reported on the return was under $6,000, then this method would be more to the couple's advantage than the standard deduction.

Q - I've heard that one of the tax benefits for older people is to be able to sell your home at a profit and not be taxed on that money. Is that true?

A - Yes it is if certain conditions are met. You will not have to pay tax on the profit if you were 65 or older before the date of the sale, the adjusted sales price was $20,000 or less, and you owned and occupied the house as your principal residence for at least 5 of the 8 years before the sale.

If you sold the house for over $20,000 and the other conditions are met, then only a portion of the profit will be taxable.

Gain excluded under this provision of law can be elected only once.

This benefit is explained in the booklet, "Tax Benefits for Older Americans," Document No. 5569. For a free copy, drop a post card to your IRS district director.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Do You Have A Sales Mentality?

by Jane Sherrod Singer

The first promotion job was done by Eve when she talked Adam into eating the forbidden apple. Some people have innate selling ability. Others learn the techniques and some personalities couldn't sell a glass of water to a thirsting man. Since there is room for all of us in this world, this is merely a check list to see how well suited you are for the selling field.

	YES	NO
1. Can you list five good reasons why your product should be purchased?	( )	( )
2. Do you like to meet new people?	( )	( )
3. Do you think that service and sales go together?	( )	( )
4. Can you honestly say you have an even temper?	( )	( )
5. Is optimism a part of your mental make-up?	( )	( )
6. Is good grooming a habit with you?	( )	( )
7. Do you have hobbies and interests other than your job?	( )	( )
8. Do you work by the clock?	( )	( )
9. Are you interested in reading material about psychology, business and business techniques?	( )	( )
10. Do you put your work ahead of your family and friends?	( )	( )

DESIRABLE ANSWERS: All should be YES, except 8 and 10.

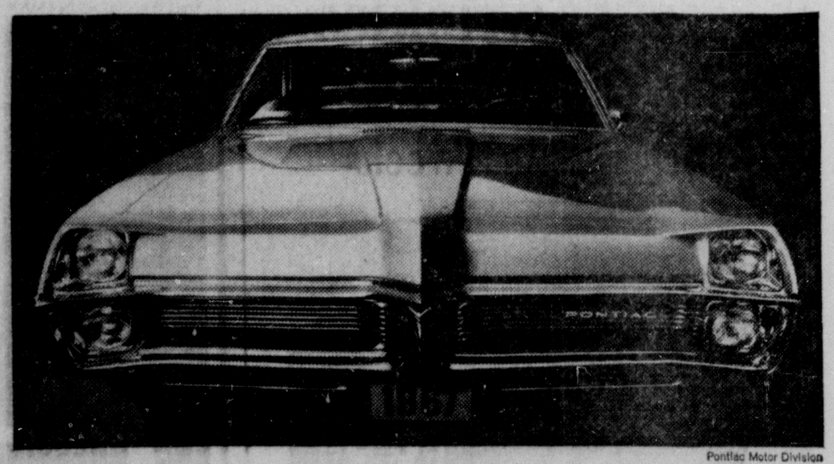
8. A good salesman is seldom a clock-watcher because he is dealing with others whose schedules may not jibe with his.

10. Selling should be a part of your well-adjusted life. "I always consider," says Dr. L. J. Chase, Personnel Counselor, "what the person is doing outside of business hours to develop himself."

TO SUM IT UP: "Success or failure in business is caused more by the mental attitude even than by mental capacities." (Walter Dill Scott)

"Business is never so healthy as when, like a chicken, it must do a certain amount of scratching for what it gets." (Henry Ford)

Maybe our '67 Pontiac is breaking sales records because people don't want to wait until '68 for a copy.



Pontiac Motor Division

Our engineers have become used to seeing their ideas show up on other cars. Two years late. And apparently so have a lot of car buyers. Because 1967 Pontiacs are selling faster than 1966 Pontiacs. And '66 was a record year.

When you think about it, why should you wait around for innovations like our disappearing windshield wipers? Or for imaginative options like our exclusive hood-mounted tach? Especially when you consider that our engineers wouldn't turn a Pontiac loose with anything less than a standard 400 cubic inch V-8. Or a Tempest with anything less than our revolutionary Overhead Cam Six. (Not to mention all those new safety features like GM's energy absorbing steering column and a dual master cylinder brake system with warning lamp.)

In short, our engineers seem to have done it again. They may even start asking for royalties on the copies.

Postal Rate Hike Starts July 1 On Graduating Scale

Postal rates will increase in a series of size and weight hikes beginning July 1 and will average about 10 cents a parcel according to a release received this week from the Post Office Department.

The size and weight increases wil be in five annual steps, the last coming on July 1, 1971.

The new rates will range from 40 cents for a three pound parcel destined for local delivery to 60 cents for the same parcel to zone 7 (150 to 300 miles) to $1.05 to zone 8 (over 1,800) miles.

The new rates are expected to provide an additional $74 million a year for the Post Office Dept. The later size and weight increases will add another $32 million a year. The additional revenue was approved by legislation signed into law September 20, 1966 to help keep the Department within 4 percent of costs on parcel post.
